SPL's

written by: Alan Wells

School's back in again for the new year, and so is scouts. Hope everyone had a good holiday and a new year. We are starting some new merit badges this month, which include: e. prep, snow sports, and music. Lock-in was a blast and everyone had a great time. Unfortunately, we need people who hold positions to show up at the PLC or contact an SPL to say you won't be coming. Thank you.

The next couple of months will be fun. We are looking forward to Klondike. The ski trip to A-Basin was fun. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves. We all hope to go to PV for summer camp.

We have liked school so far. Charlie got straight A's on his report card. We are looking forward to the new scouts, Klondike and Laser Tag. We enjoyed skiing at arapahoe Basin, and had a great time.

Skiing was a ton of fun. We wish you a Happy New Year (even though its kind of late.) It looks like 2005 will be a lot of fun.

Scoutmaster Minute

Dear Troop

Happy New Year-
With a new year a lot of us try to make new beginnings. This is great, goals are what make our dreams become reality. The troop had a dream of getting a trailer to make our outings easier. With that dream in mind, we made goals in order to have that become a reality. And we made it. Great job to all of you with the fundraising which made this dream a reality. I want to give a special thanks to Karen and Bill Benigar for heading up and assisting with the fundraisings to make this possible, thanks.

With the group's effort a lot of things are possible, it starts with teamwork. So keep your dreams alive and make goals to make them possible, this is with scouts, in school and with our jobs and do not forget to ask for help on the way.
