SPL's

written by: Steve Z.

Hi! I'm back! I had a long absence due to baseball issues but I should be here for awhile now. Sumer camp is almost here, we are going to PV again. We've had a major interest loss since last year, going from near 24 to 13. We would like to have many more people next year so that we can have fun. The more the merrier, and more people means a bigger campsite which means bigger, better games. Yellowstone and Guenella Pass are coming up, and planning starts soon. That's all for now, see ya next meeting.

Sharks

We are looking forward to PV and hoping it will be fun.

And Joey is glad to report that $2 + 2 = 4$.

Dragons

I'm feeling lucky to be going to PV and 13 people are going. Plus I have Astron as a tent partner, he sounds nifty. I'm looking forward to PV. Plus I'm looking forward to taking Photography at PV.

Pedros

Backpacking was very fun, even with limited people. Everybody is excited for PV and we're already getting ready for the Yellowstone trip.

Halo 3 comes out in November of 2006!

PV will be fun or at least I hope so like it always is!

Scoutmaster Minute

Dear Troop,

If you have noticed there are a lot of ways to communicate with others. You can speak, write, sing, draw pictures or even make funny faces. Another way is how one dresses. For example-if you see someone in rags and not groomed – your first thought is a homeless person or someone that is having a hard time with life. Or if you see someone that is dressed in clean, neat clothes, you might see someone that has it together. Think about how many ways you can wear your clothes, is it messy, neat, matching colors – and so on.

Each type or style of clothes make a statement-that is a form of communication. So just like writing or speaking to someone, what message are you trying to make with your choice of dress?

In scouts, it is the same way, if you attend a meeting with parts of your uniform missing, you are making a statement, this shows people that you may not be proud of your uniform, scouting and yourself. Now-if you see a scout in full uniform, well, you see a person that is put together and proud of scouting and the ideals that uniform represents – which is the law and the oath.

So, if you want to make the right statement-make sure you communicate the message you want. It is up to you!

S.H.A.R.E. Colorado:

A WIN- WIN SITUATION!!

Parents get good food cheaper than in the stores, and scouts can get community service hours. Please contact Scott or Codi Johnson for more information. or <http://www.sharecolorado.com>

Green Mountain Presbyterian Church Work Days

Each Month the church has a clean up day. These are on Saturdays.

They are:

- July 8
- August 5
- September 9
- October 7

If you can make one of these dates to help it would be great, thanks.

Also, they sponsor the Second Wind Run on September 24.

Recycling

Thank you to everyone who has been bringing in cardboard, and scrap paper, bottles, cans, etc. The white bin is filling up fast - keep up the good work! If we can get all our friends and neighbors to help it will really fill up fast!

Be sure to bring in empty ink jet cartridges too.

Thanks for all your help!

Program

written by: Mary Ann Pettit and Sharon Edelen

During the months of May and June the scouts will continue working on the following merit badges:

Personal Fitness with Mr Edelen and Mr Hass

Pets with Mrs Braun

Aviation with Mr Mann.

Make sure your son finishes all the requirements so they can receive their badge during the Court of Honor on July 2nd.

Mrs. Pettit has turned her duties of Program Chair to Mrs. Edelen. Please see her if you have any questions about Merit Badge requirements or any other related questions.
