We're all happy that new scouts are joining to make the troop bigger, and are looking forward to billiards and the snow sports.

Lightning Patrol

written by: Levi

We would like to welcome Nick Robin and Andrew Ellsworth to our troop. We look forward to having great times and fun adventures with you. The month of March is right around the corner. We have several fun activities planned for the month. Don't forget March 1st is the Billiards activity, followed by snow sports on March March 9th. Pull out your skis or snowboards and get to rip some snow. Most importantly don't forget the trip to Moab planned for March 23rd-29th. It will be blast as always and we are excited. Don't forget to collect cans so the lightning patrol can win!

Scoutmaster Minute

Dear Troop,

This time of year is a renew in the troop. We have some members move on with their lives and some have aged out from scouts. This month we have three new members in our troop, Andrew, Nick and Marcus and their families. I know all of you will make them successeful in their scouting endovers.

The following story describes helping each other.

Be a Blessing - a true story Minute

Many of you have heard of a woman in India named Mother Teresa who has devoted her life to serving the poor. She is known around the world. She has shown that you do not have to do big things to be a blessing to others.

If someone is hungry you can feed them.

If they are dirty you can help clean them.

If they are sick you can care for them.

If they are lonely you can talk to them.

If they mourn someone you can give them words of comfort.

You do not have to be rich or famous or a person of great importance to do any of this. You simply have to care about others as much as you care about your own needs.

Mother Teresa has cared for many who were sick, fed many who were hungry, and cleaned many who were dirty. She gave up all her worldly possessions when she started doing this many years ago. She was not always famous but she always cared, helping people in the slums of Calcutta, India.

Each of you can be a blessing to others as you live your lives. You can say a kind word when someone is down; you can buy a meal for someone who is hungry. When you help someone, keep it to yourself, you do not need to tell others what a good person you are. The world will notice your example by how you treat others. When the opportunities arise, always be a blessing to family, friends and strangers!
